New Course Offering
Spring 2004

Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering

Course #: 47193
Course Title: Today’s Technology
Professor: Michael Otis otism@engr.newpaltz.edu
Time: MW 5:00 – 6:15
Room: REH 111
Credits: 3

Have you ever wanted to know “how things work” or “what’s inside the box?” This course will survey the inner workings of today’s and emerging technologies.

Topics will include:
- Microcomputers
- Broadband and Wireless Technologies
- Robotics
- Smart Houses

Hands-on experiences in:
- Robotics
- Building alarm systems

Guest lecturers from the areas of:
- Internet Telephony
- Plasma Displays
- Super Computers

This course is not intended for EE or CE majors.